

David J. Hammond, 71

David J Hammond, 71, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on May 12 at Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital in Plymouth, MA. David is survived by his children Amanda Faubel of Virginia Beach, VA and Daniel Hammond and his wife Karin Hammond of North Attleboro, MA, and his loving dance partner Joan Paquette of Duxbury. He is preceded in death by his brother Robert Hammond from Tacoma, WA. David had two grandchildren, Molly and Jack. He is also survived by his former wife, good friend and mother of his children, Judith Hammond of Norton, MA.

David was born on January 25, 1945 in Quincy, MA to Charles J.K. Hammond and Dorothy (Coy) Hammond. He graduated from Weymouth Vocational High School and retired from his job as a sheet metal fabricator at Seavey Engineering after a long career.

David was very socially active and was deeply involved in a number of different clubs. He was a former director for the South Shore Dancers where he loved to ballroom dance with Joan and his friends. He was also active in the South Shore Singles Club where he went on a number of trips including an Alaskan and European riverboat cruise. Dave was also a member of the Bay Players in Duxbury. When he wasn't busy with these activities, you could find Dave working on his boat and planning his next trip. David will always be remembered by his family as a big dreamer with a loving heart.

Visiting hours are on Wednesday, May 18 from 4-7 p.m. at the Sullivan Funeral Home, 551 Washington St, Rte 53 in Hanover. A service will held in the funeral home on Thursday, May 19 at 10 a.m. Burial will be private. For directions and to sign David's online guest book, visit SullivanFuneralHomes.com.
